

PACIFIC SCIENTIFIC
ENERGETIC MATERIALS CO.

MANUFACTURING ENGINEER

As a member of a multi-functional team, you will be responsible for applying electrical, industrial and/or mechanical engineering techniques in the development of work instruction documentation, process procedures and tooling and fixtures. You will be interacting with a team of program managers, planners, engineers and operations' personnel to meet production deadlines.

QUALIFICATIONS

- Review and interpret product design drawings and develops work instructions and process procedures.
- Prepare labor, material, tooling and equipment costs estimates for proposals.
- Design tooling and fixturing for use in production and inspection of products.
- Participate in design reviews to ensure manufacturability of proposed designs.
- Participate in lean manufacturing events.

REQUIREMENTS

- Applicants must be U.S. Citizens
- BS in engineering or technical discipline
- Minimum of 3 years of experience in a technical and manufacturing environment, preferably in the aerospace/defense industry
- Experience with tooling a must with ordnance helpful but not required
- Government contract experience helpful but not required

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Location: Hollister
Travel: Limited
Employment Type: Full Time

PSEMC is pleased to be an Equal Opportunity Employer. Applicants are considered for these positions based upon their experience and education, without regard to race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, sexual orientation, ancestry; marital, disabled or veteran status.